Most of our wines are not available on the high street and are only accessible through wine merchants in case quantities... pubs and restaurants must have their mark ups, however, this seems a little unfair if you would like to take a bottle away...or perhaps pop in and choose a good wine on your way home... chilled bottles are available...gift boxes... presentation bottles...and so on...

These are for consumption "Off" the premises...and our terrace & garden do not count!
(Orders over a case of 12... prices are reduced and can be delivered directly by our wine merchants... please ask)
